To Whom It May Concern:

Philip Peterson, Sr. presented a fine slide show presentation this past March at our 11th Annual Quiet Water Symposium, a part of Agriculture and Natural Resources Week held on the campus of Michigan State University. His topic was the early years covered in his biography All Things Are Possible – The Verlen Kruger Story, and his presentation lasted one hour. Philip was well received by the audience and enchanted them with his many anecdotes for each slide shown. He truly knew and loved Verlen Kruger and his passion for sharing Verlen's life was evident throughout his presentation.

The Quiet Water Symposium committee also had Philip give an impromptu fifteen minute presentation the year before as a lead-in to our annual presentation of the Verlen Kruger Award. This brief presentation left the audience clearly wishing for more.

Philip's knowledge of Verlen Kruger's life could easily cover several different one hour presentations. I highly recommend Phil's presentation to everyone.

Sincerely,
